About London

Barcelona is capital city of Catalonia in the Kingdom of Spain. It is the second most population about 1.65 million within city limits and largest metropolitan city on the Mediterranean Sea which is located between the mouths of the rivers on the coast part of Llobregat and Besos and on the west, bounded by the Serra de Collserola mountain range. The city itself renowned as jewels of home-grown Catalan architecture, modernisme with contemporary architecture, treasures of the ancient Roman and medieval city, River side beaches and park.

It has a huge number of attractions including a city center which retains its medieval street plan; some stunning modernist architecture including several buildings by Gaudí - Spain's most famous architect; dozens of museums including one dedicated to Picasso, another to Miró and yet another to Barça, Barcelona's world famous football club!

Barcelona is almost as lively at night as it is during the day and it has a unique, exciting atmosphere, which provides the visitor with a truly unforgettable experience.

Most of city is devoted to open parks and gorgeous beaches, it's about only ten minutes south of the city center and enjoys five kilometers of tempting sand spaces, so there are plenty of places to relax on fine days. Barcelona is well-connected with integrated transport system international airports and the high-speed Eurostar rail link, metro, trams, and Public transport.
