About Melbourne

Melbourne is Victoria's capital city and the business, administrative, cultural and recreational hub of the state. The City of Melbourne's population is made up of many groups of people of all ages and from many different cultures. Residents include young professionals, international students and older couples looking to enjoy everything the city has to offer. The City of Melbourne as a council (Melbourne City Council) oversees the municipal area that includes Melbourne's city centre and several inner suburbs. As a capital-city council, it also speaks on behalf of Melbourne in local, national and international forums. The City of Melbourne works with other local councils and the Victorian Government to ensure that Melbourne is one of the safest, healthiest and cleanest cities in the world. It supports Melbourne's position as Australia's pre-eminent centre for arts and culture, education, dining and shopping. Melbourne is an international cultural centre, with cultural endeavours spanning major events and festivals, drama, musicals, comedy, music, art, architecture, literature, film and television. The climate, waterfront location and nightlife make it one of the most vibrant destinations in Australia. The best tourism place in the Melbourne are Federation Square, Royal Botanic Gardens, Melbourne Cricket Ground(MCG), Southbank and Arts Centre Melbourne, National Gallery of Victoria, Eureka Tower, Arcades and Laneways, Melbourne Museum and Royal Exhibition Building, Melbourne Zoo, Healesville Sanctuary, Peninsula Hot Springs, Captain Cook's Cottage, Yarra River Cruise, Shrine of Remembrance, Docklands, Queen Victoria Market. Trams are a big part of Melbourne's public transport system, and the Circle Tram offers visitors a free and easy way of seeing the CBD. The talking, hop-on-hop-off heritage tram passes many of the grand historic buildings including Parliament House, Old Treasury Building, Princess Theatre, and the Windsor Hotel.
