Invitation

Dear Attendees,

We are glad to announce the 10th World Congress on Biomarkers & Clinical Research to be held in Baltimore, USA from October 18-20, 2017 organized by Conference Series LLC in collaboration with generous support and cooperation from enthusiastic academicians and editorial Board Members.

This conference is a unique international platform that’s a confluence of all stake holders of the ecosystem – Industry, Academia, Researchers, Innovators, Regulators – coming together to present and discuss current topics on Biomarkers, Cancer Biomarkers, Molecular Biomarkers, Biomarkers in Drug discovery, Biomarkers in Clinical Research & Development.

As the premier event, we have developed a program with your interests in mind. We have not only increased the number of opportunities for you to network with colleagues from across the world but also introduced more focused sessions that will feature cutting edge presentations, special panel discussions and livelier interaction with industry leaders and experts.

Life is full of give and take. Make it count in your professional life. Attend the Biomarkers & Clinical Research conference to network with your peers, exchange expertise and experiences and arm yourself with the latest information to take your department to the next level.

We look forward to personally welcoming you to Baltimore this October 18-20, 2017.

Sincerely,
Biomarkers 2017
Organizing Committee

Why Baltimore:

Baltimore is the biggest city in the U.S. condition of Maryland, and the 29th-most crowded city in the nation. It was set up by the Constitution of Maryland and is not part of any region; subsequently, it is the biggest autonomous city in the United States. Baltimore has more open landmarks per capita than some other city in the nation and is home to a portion of the most punctual National Register notable regions in the country, including Fell’s Point (1969), Federal Hill (1970) and Mount Vernon Place (1971). More than 65,000 properties, or around one in three structures in the city, are recorded on the National Register, more than some other city in the country.

Established in 1729, Baltimore is the second biggest seaport in the Mid-Atlantic. Baltimore’s Inner Harbor was at one time the second driving port of passage for settlers to the United States and a noteworthy assembling focus. After a decrease in real assembling, industrialization and rail transportation, Baltimore moved to an administration arranged economy, with the Johns Hopkins Hospital (established 1889), and Johns Hopkins University (established 1876), now the city’s main two managers.

Baltimore had a populace of 621,849 in 2015; in 2010, that of Baltimore Metropolitan Area was 2.7 million, the 21st biggest in the nation.

With many recognized locale, Baltimore has been named “a city of neighborhoods”. Well known inhabitants have incorporated the essayists Edgar Allan Poe, Edith Hamilton, Frederick Douglass, and H.L. Mencken; jazz artist James “Eubie” Blake; artist Billie Holiday; on-screen character and movie producer John Waters; and baseball player Babe Ruth. In the War of 1812, Francis Scott Key composed The Star-Spangled Banner, later the American national song of praise, in the city.
