About Berlin, Germany

Berlin is the capital of Germany, and one of the 16 states of Germany with a population of 3.5 million people and is Germany's largest city. It is the second most populous city proper and the seventh most populous urban area in the European Union. Located in north-eastern Germany on the banks of Rivers Spree and Havel, it is the centre of the Berlin-Brandenburg Metropolitan Region, which has about six million residents from over 180 nations. Due to its location in the European Plain, Berlin is influenced by a temperate seasonal climate. Around one-third of the city's area is composed of forests, parks, gardens, rivers and lakes.

Berlin is a world city of culture, politics, media, and science. Its economy is based on high-tech firms and the service sector, encompassing a diverse range of creative industries, research facilities, media corporations, and convention venues. Berlin serves as a continental hub for air and rail traffic and has a highly complex public transportation network. The metropolis is a popular tourist destination. Significant industries include Graphics, Animation, Game Art, Gamer hub and Media & Film Festivals.

Berlin hosts the world's greatest film festivals, the Berlin International Film Festival, the International Leipzig Festival for Documentary and Animated Film, the Festival of Animated Film Stuttgart and the Bitfilm Festival.

Computer Graphics 2017 welcomes you to the exciting city of Berlin!!
