About Bangkok
Bangkok, The City of Angels or “Krungthep” in Thai, is the capital city of Thailand. Bangkok is the hub for most of the commercial and economical activities of the Kingdom. At the same time, the City is very famous and appreciated by visitors for its versatility and multiple points of interests. From temples, the Grand Palace, all the way over the some of Asia’s largest shopping centres and the largest outdoor market of Asia (Chatuchak), Bangkok definitely has what it takes to entertain visitors from all origins, either first time or return travellers. Whilst Taxi fares are very reasonable, most of the sightseeing can comfortably be reached by Sky train (BTS) or Underground train (MRT). Aside of the sightseeing and shopping, Bangkok has developed into a magnet for food lovers of all origins. The same range of choice applies to the accommodation options all over town, from high end international chain hotels to family run guest houses; demands of all travellers are met. In terms of wellness and relaxation – Bangkok has recently seen a huge development of city Spas and Wellness centres, in addition to the long established Thai massage centres.
