

Welcome Message

My Dear Colleagues,

As a member of the Organizing Committee for 6th International Conference on Medical & Nursing Education (Medical Education 2017) scheduled during Nov 6-8, 2017 at Vienna, Austria, it is my pleasure to welcome you all to this prestigious event.

“CME Credits Accredited by ACCME” Medical Education 2017 depends on generous knowledge donations of experts to promote their scientific discoveries. Our commitment is to promote open, transparent and international scientific exchange on the “Scholarly approaches to address challenges in medical and nursing education to improve pedagogy” and contribute to the improvement of efforts taken to tackle local, national and global impacts of Medical and Nursing Education. We expect that this decade will see great advances in the field of Medical and Nursing Education Research.

The Conference is also having CPD Credits Accredited by The CPD Standards Office, beneficial for the development and advancement of professional careers. Therefore, we are pleased to bring together experts from the field of Medical and Nursing Education to address the latest advances and ideas, and to stimulate interdisciplinary interactions.

Conferences such as Medical Education 2017 may help to speed up the development of new, innovative and effective medical research to meet the demands of increasing lifespans and raised expectations of patients in the future.

Vienna has become the capital of the world where visitors and tourists live unique experiences and enjoy special attractions. Attending and contributing to the conference will definitely enhance your cultural and scientific experience and open further opportunities for you and your career.

Once again, I am delighted to invite you all to take part in this conference and also to make this event a grand success. We look forward to meeting you in Vienna, Austria for the 6th International Conference on Medical and Nursing Education.

With best regards,

Sharon M. Weinstein, MS, RN, CRNI-R, FACW, FAAN, CSP

The Global Education Development Institute and

The University of Illinois, Chicago, College of Nursing

Medical Education 2017 Organizing Committee

Welcome Message

Dear Fellows,

It is our great pleasure to welcome you to the 6th International Conference on Nursing and Medical Education. Which is going to be held during November 6-8, 2017 in beautiful city of Vienna, Austria.

The world of health care is a field of endless opportunities and career prospects, and this requires us to meet and bring inspired people together in forums like this, to ensure our health care services remain at the cutting edge. The theme for this year colloquium is “Scholarly approaches to address challenges in Medical and Nursing Education to Improve Pedagogy”. We need to transform the way we deliver our educational programs to continuously improve the ability of health care professionals to provide quality services, integrate advancements into medical and nursing education programs, and address the importance of ethical practice and commitment to relevant legislation in this field.

We thank all health care professionals and academicians who are attending the conference for bringing their expertise to this event. As leaders in the fields of education and practice, you have the vision, the knowledge, and the experience to help pave the way into a healthier future. Throughout this conference, we hope that you to stay engaged, proactive to help shape the future of medical and nursing education.

We hope that this scientific gathering will also be memorable and fulfilling for all participants, and wish we meet again in future events.

Sawsan H. Ezzeddine

Dean, College of Nursing and Health Sciences
Makassed University of Beirut, Lebanon

Medical Education 2017 Organizing Committee Member

