About USA

The United States is a highly developed country, with the world's largest economy by nominal and real GDP. It ranks highly in several measures of socioeconomic performance, including average wage. Human development, per capita GDP, and productivity per person. While the U.S. economy is considered post-industrial, characterized by the dominance of services, the manufacturing sector remains the second largest in the world. Though its population is only 4.4% of the world total, the United States accounts for nearly a quarter of world GDP and almost a third of global military spending, making it the world's foremost military and economic power. The United States is a prominent political and cultural force internationally, and a leader in scientific research and technological innovations.

Grand Canyon, Maui, Yellowstone, Yosemite, San Francisco, Honolulu, Orlando-Walt Disney World, Las Vegas, Aspen, Anchorage, Chicago are one of the finest places to visit in USA. Apple pie and Roasted turkey is a traditional menu item of American cuisine.
