Computer-guided Implantology Lecture and Workshop

This course is a guide for using various software available to improve the patient's experience after an implantology procedure. The course is designed for dentists who wish to start working in Computer-guided implantology and to improve their skill and confidence in the practice.

Workshop Topic:

- Introduction to computer-guided implantology.
- Importance of Accuracy in implantology.
- Treatment planning
- Computer-guided implantology illustrated with clinical cases.
- Integration of Computer-guided implantology in office.

What you will learn:

- Benefits of using software for implantology.
- Setting up your computer to organize file.
- Transfering big files such as CT scan data.
- Hands-on software experience on demo cases.

Know your Trainer:

Dr. Martani, an expert in computer driven implantology and aesthetic dentistry is the inventor of the San technique in computer guided implantology using AccuGuide. Dr. Martani, who is a lecturer in the Department of Conservative Dentistry at Hawler Medical University-Iraq. In 1996, he received B.D.S. degree (Dental & Oral Surgery) from University of Mosul-Iraq. After that M.Sc. degree in Conservative Dentistry from University of Salahaddin-Iraq in 2003. Followed by Ph.D. degree in 2015 from the Department of Oral Rehabilitation Science at Beirut Arab University-Lebanon.