MOHAMMAD ATALLAH
BSc, MSc, PhD
Deputy Corporate Director of Nursing
KSU Medical City
Ext. # 011469-0124

جامعة الملك سعود
King Saud University

email: matallah@ksu.edu.sa

mobile: +966508265513

- Institution: King Saud University Medical City, one of the largest medical cities Kingdom Of Saudi Arabia, consists of three hospitals with more than 1500 bed capacity
- Fields of interest : nursing administration, quality and implementation of CPGs
- Publication 5

Title – Guidance on the adaptation of clinical practical guidelines: getting the evidence into nursing practice

Clinical practice guidelines are “systematically developed statements to assist practitioner and patient decisions about appropriate health care for specific clinical circumstances. Determining which guidelines are quality products worthy of adoption can be daunting. Every effort should be made to identify existing guidelines that have been rigorously developed and to adopt or adapt them for local use. However, organizations and clinicians should scrutinize the methods by which the guidelines were developed, as well as the content and utility of the recommendations.

Aim of this presentation is to

- Provide a guide that describe strategies for identifying, critically appraising, and adopting or adapting guidelines for local use.
- Determining the level of evidence
- Describe health care professionals reaction to CPGs
- Present the ADAPTAION Guidelines of CPGs
- Share King Saud University Medical City – KSA nursing department experience in CPGs adaptation