Can we reduce fracture nose even after years

Dr:Ahmed khalaf Rabeea

M.B.CH.B from college of medicine of Mosel June 1988.

High diploma otolaryngology from Baghdad university, college of medicine oct . 1999.

Director of department of ear, nose and throat ,in Salahadin general hospital Tikrit city, Iraq.

Objective: fracture nose is the commonest fracture of the facial bones. Closed reduction is easy and simple procedure for it is management within 10_14 days after trauma.

Our trail to reduce fracture nose even after years.

Method: 12 patients male and female with isolated fracture nose type 1,2,3 were underwent classical closed reduction method under general anesthesia with or without septoplasty or septorrinoplasty procedure .

Result: satisfactory results were achieved for all the 12 patients. Assessment of the results by pre and post-operative x_ ray of nasal bone and photographs for all them.

Conclusion: the trial proved that we can reduce fracture nose even after years exceeding the usual time for reduction after trauma .Satisfactory results was achieved regarding cosmetic and function of the nose.

Drahmedk600@gmail.com

+9647729398325