It is an immense delight to extend our warm welcome to the event "Global Summit on Women's Health Nursing", which includes Keynote Address, Oral Lectures, Poster Presentations, Exhibitions, Workshops, Young Research Forum and more on May 16-17, 2021 in London, UK. The conference is organised around the topic "Challenges faced by the Nursing sector during Covid-19 in Women's healthcare" Women's Health Nursing 2021 shares an insight into recent findings and cutting-edge women's health innovations by improving and expanding well-known Nursing practises during Covid-19. The key aim of Women's Health Nursing 2021 is to put together a multi-disciplinary community of experts and experts from around the world mainly during this pandemic situation, to discuss and share break-through ideas on Women's Health Care. It promotes top-level analysis and to globalise the quality research in general, while making discussions, presentations more globally competitive and attracting emphasis on the recent excellent accomplishments in the field of nursing care, and future developments and needs. Thus, WHN 2021 takes the Remote Society and Organization assemblage to consider all the Women Health Nurse Practitioners who give admirable health care to all. Because They Care When It's Time to Care. It promotes top-level analysis which reflects on recent excellent nursing accomplishments and future developments and needs. It offers insight into the new science and technology in the area of women's health care.
