ABOUT VENUE

There are about 8.8 million people living in London, capital and largest city of both England and the United Kingdom. At the head of an estuary that stretches 50 miles (80 km) down to the North Sea, it is situated on the River Thames in southeast England. For almost two millennia, it has been a significant settlement. Being a major global city, London has a significant impact on media, science and technology, tourism, transportation, communications, education, fashion, entertainment, and finance. It is the largest urban economy in Europe and one of the world's principal financial hubs, with a GDP of €801.66 billion in 2017
