3rd INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON

NEUROLOGY AND NEUROLOGICAL DISORDERS

OCTOBER 16-18, 2023 | PARIS, FRANCE

https://neurologyconference.pulsusconference.com/

INVITATION

NEUROLOGY 2023

Neurology 2023 aims to bring together all of the world's leading neurologists, psychologists, researchers, neurosurgeons, neuro-scientist's, medical professionals, fellowship bearers, residents, pharmaceutical companies, and healthcare workers.

The gathering's subject matter, " An Arousing Look at the Latest Detection and Therapy of Neurological Disorders" suggests that Neurology 2023 will be a remarkable platform for investigating advances in Neurology and Neurological disorders. The main improvements in methods, materials, and process changes related to the treatment of neurological and neurological disorders will be addressed at this meeting, and the results of the procedures will be shared. This meeting will provide participants from Medical Universities and Neuro-pharmaceutical firms with a once-in-a-lifetime chance to engage with industry-leading Neurologists, Psychiatrists, Neurosurgeons, and Business people.

Neurology 2023 will not only serve as a place for the biggest meeting of Neurologists, and associated professionals, but it will also seek to disseminate knowledge on developments in the ever-changing field of Neurology.

Keynote addresses, plenary sessions, and oral and poster displays are all part of Neurology 2023. Professionals interested in participating can register for Neurology 2023. Register quickly to take advantage of the exciting early bird deals.

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

- Advanced discoveries in neurology
- Modernized therapies for neurological disorders
- Latest treatments for Alzheimer's disease
- Revealing the complexity of the Neurophysiology
- Diversity and dynamism in the Neurostimulation
- New advancements in neuroplasticity
- Ongoing researches in clinical neurology
- Risk of progression to dementia
- Biology of Neurogenesis and Aging
- Genetics and Epigenetics in Neurodegenerative Disorders
- Artificial intelligence and Neuroscience in Neurological Disorders
- Emerging approaches in neurostimulation for epilepsy
- Advancements and ongoing research in Neuromuscular disorders
- An overview of evolving therapeutic advancements in stroke
- An Integrative Theory of Motor control therapies
- Surgical evaluation for drug-resistant epilepsy
- Cerebrovascular diseases
- New diagnosis of Parkinson's disease

35
Years Excellence

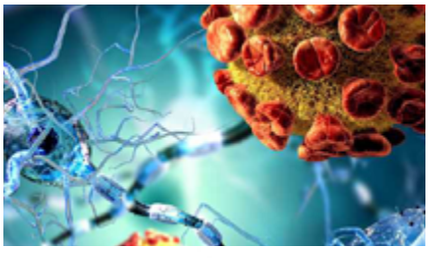

ABOUT US

Since many years Pulsus has also been very instrumental to provide an invaluable channel for Scientists and Researchers to exchange ideas and research by creating a forum for discussing the possibilities of future collaborations between Universities, Institutions, research bodies and Organizations from different countries through International Conferences and Meetings.

Pulsus Group is an International Renowned Medical peer-review publisher and conference organizer established in the year 1984 publishes and hosts the work of Researchers in a manner that exemplifies the highest standards in research integrity.

With a legacy of more than 35 years of excellence in Medical Publishing we are endorsed by various societies like World Association of Medical Sciences, International Academy of Cardiovascular Sciences, International Society of Addiction Medicine, European Biotechnology Thematic Network Association, World Federation of Paediatrics Intensive and Critical Care Societies, International Society for Ceramics in Medicine, Thalassemia International Federation and World Association of Integrated Medicine to nurture the research and development for the beneficence of society.

MARKET ANALYSIS

The worldwide neurology market will increase from USD 33.5 billion in 2019 to USD 39.4 billion in 2024, with a 3.5% CAGR (Compound Annual Growth Rate) over this period. In contrast, the market for neurological biomarkers worldwide was estimated to be worth USD 6.1 billion in 2020. From 2020 to 2028, analysts project it to expand at a CAGR of 12.9%.

According to a recent WHO survey, it appears that neurological disorders such as Alzheimer's and dementia, epilepsy, and others account for more than 12% of deaths worldwide on average, and it is also predicted that the number of lives lost due to neuro disorders will rise from 95 million in 2015 to 103 million in 2030.

The government has raised funds for research and development (R&D) activities, advancements in the field of neuroscience and neuro-technology, increasing healthcare expenditure, rising geriatric population, and improving healthcare infrastructure, which makes a positive thrust to the market growth.

TARGET AUDIENCE

- Neurologist
- Neuroscientists
- Neurosurgeons
- Neuropsychologist
- Neuro-oncologist
- Surgical neurologist
- Neuropsychiatrist
- Paediatric neurologist
- Research Scholars

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- Neurologists
- Researchers
- Scientists and professors
- Medical Students
- Research faculty
- Academic Scientists
- Directors/Managers/CEO's
- Presidents & Vice Presidents
- Brand Manufacturers/ Marketers
- of Consumer Products
- Marketing, Advertising and
- Promotion Agency Executives

WHY TO ATTEND

Neurology 2023 is an excellent chance to assess the status of neurology in the twenty-first century and the path of future developments. This Conference will provide an excellent chance to exchange scholarly and therapeutic advancements and research in order to strengthen social connections and mutual support. Our conference's aim is to bring together experts in Clinical and Experimental Neurology to exchange ideas and learn from the finest. It also allows businesses to showcase their goods and has face-to-face interactions with scientists, which increases their business possibilities.

WHY SPONSOR OUR EVENT?

Maximum exposure at a premier conference devoted to those involved in the office professional industry.

An opportunity to build and reinforce strategic relationships within the office professional industry.

ABOUT VENUE

Paris, France's capital and largest city, is located in the country's north-central region. By around 7600 BCE, people were living on the current city's site, which is located along the Seine River about 233 miles (375 km) upstream from the river's mouth on the English Channel (La Manche). The modern city has spread far beyond the island and both banks of the Seine. The Seine divides historical Paris into three sections. The Left Bank (Rive Gauche) of the Seine has traditionally been the seat of intellectual life, while the Right Bank (Rive Droite) has traditionally been the seat of economic life, but these distinctions have become blurred in recent decades. Paris is located in the heart of the Ile-de-France region, which is traversed by the rivers Seine, Oise, and Marne. The city is surrounded by large beech and oak forests, which are known as the "lungs of Paris" because they help to purify the air in the heavily industrialized region. Paris benefits from the balmy influences of the Gulf Stream and has a fairly temperate climate due to its location on the western side of Europe and in a plain relatively close to the sea.
