MARKET ANALYSIS

During the forecast period from 2024 to 2028, the dermatology market is projected to grow by CAGR of 28.4%. According to a report by MarketsandMarkets, the global skincare market is expected to reach USD 125.6 billion by 2026, growing at a CAGR of 32.1% from 2024 to 2026. The growth of the market is attributed to increasing investments in research and development activities, increasing government support, and rising demand for skin-based products in various industries.

In the latest study of the market analysis, the hospitals are expected to dominate the market during the forecast period, driven by the increasing demand for skincare products, cosmetics and facial surgeries. The healthcare sector is expected to grow significantly, driven by the increasing use of dermatology in drug delivery, diagnostics, and imaging.
