MARKET ANALYSIS

Minimally invasive surgical techniques involve the use of advanced and thin ENT devices in nasal, ear, and throat. The popularity of these types of surgeries is increasing because they are associated with minimal tissue damage, a quicker recovery, less irritation, and less scarring. ENT instruments available in the market are endoscopes, hearing aids and implants, handheld surgical devices, balloon dilation devices for sinus, CO2 lasers, image-guided surgery systems, ear tubes, and voice prosthesis devices.

The market for otorhinolaryngology devices was valued at US$ 15.8 billion in 2021 and is expected to reach US$ 30.3 billion by 2029, growing at a 7.0% CAGR during the forecast period (2022-2029).

Otorhinolaryngology devices are pieces of equipment used to diagnose, treat, and manage conditions involving the ear, nose, throat, neck, mouth, sinuses, or voice box. These devices are widely used in the treatment of diseases that impair sensing, eating, drinking, speaking, breathing, swallowing, and hearing. Growing population under geriatric sector will definitely stimulate the ENT devices market scope. As per the WHO statistics, geriatric people are set to grow to over 16% by 2050. Since aging is considered as a serious factor inducing deafness and other hearing disorders, this phenomenon will raise industry demand in the coming years. Radiofrequency hand piece instruments were pegged at $ 0.8957 billion in 2015. While the hearing implants was driven by cochlear implants in 2015. Hearing implants market is expected to grow at a comparatively higher CAGR of 7.2%. This high growth can be attributed to growing geriatric population, and also increase in occupational hearing losses.

North America has occupied the largest region in ENT devices market in 2015 and expected to reach 40% over in 2022. UK, France and Germany ENT devices market is high and dominates the European industry. Europe also has high degree of product dispersion mostly, in sections such as hearing aids and the presence of patient awareness and sophisticated healthcare management. Favorable government has led to development in demand for hearing aids instruments across Asia Pacific, which is to record a 6.5% CAGR through to 2023. Asia Pacific market is expected to have CAGR of 6.5% during the forecast period due to the presence of target disease people, increase in distributers in ENT area, increasing concern among people for ENT disorders.

ABOUT VENUE

Dublin is the capital and largest city of Ireland. On a bay at the mouth of the River Liffey, it is in the province of Leinster, bordered on the south by the Dublin Mountains, a part of the Wicklow Mountains range. At the 2016 census it had a population of 1,173,179, while the preliminary results of the 2022 census recorded that County Dublin as a whole had a population of 1,450,701, and that the population of the Greater Dublin Area was over 2 million, or roughly 40% of the Republic of Ireland's total population.

A settlement was established in the area by the Gaels during or before the 7th century,followed by the Vikings. As the Kingdom of Dublin grew, it became Ireland's principal settlement by the 12th century Anglo-Norman invasion of Ireland. The city expanded rapidly from the 17th century and was briefly the second largest in the British Empire and sixth largest in Western Europe after the Acts of Union in 1800. Following independence in 1922, Dublin became the capital of the Irish Free State, renamed Ireland in 1937.

Dublin is a centre for education, arts and culture, administration and industry. As of 2018, the city was listed by the Globalization and World Cities Research Network (GaWC) as a global city, with a ranking of "Alpha minus", which places it as one of the top thirty cities in the world
