About City and Venue

PULSUS
WWW.PULSUSCONFERENCE.COM

Thailand is Situated in Southeast Asia, it covers a total area of approximately 513,000 square kilometers which is the 12th largest country in Asia. Dental tourism is very popular in Thailand. The country has excellent health care facilities, which remain very reasonable. Specialist dental services can be had for very low prices. The savings range from 40% to 80% compared to back home. This makes it very attractive for explorers who want to save money, while still enjoying an amazing holiday. Low cost nevertheless, another advantage of traveling to Thailand the dental work is that you can have just about everything is done there, from cleanings and scaling, to fillings and root canals, to invasive procedures like implants and bridges. Ever beauty-obsessed, Thailand is also a great place to have beautifying dental work done, from porcelain veneers to laser teeth whitening.
