About City and Venue

PULSUS
WWW.PULSUSCONFERENCE.COM

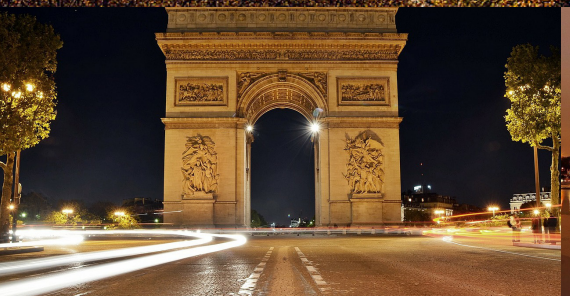

PARIS is the political, social, and scholarly capital of France and the “City of Lights” is the single most visited city on the planet. It has drawn floods of foreigners, exile craftsmen and learned people, and worldwide dealers for quite a long time, rich political and aesthetic history, attracting by virtue of its vibrant economy, abnormal number of noteworthy tourist destinations, remarkable cultural architectural life and high standard of living.

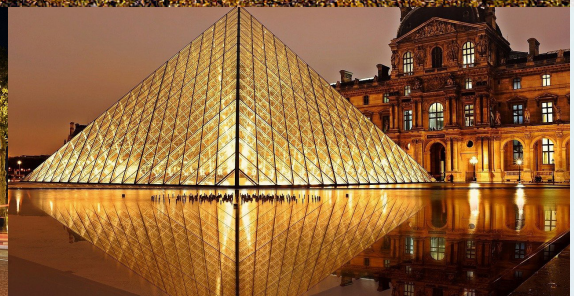

Paris has dependably been known to have the aura of romance and mystery and has been the setting for some books and motion pictures. One of the most well-known landmarks in the world called Eiffel tower is in Paris, which is reaching a height of 324 meters, built of iron and more than 7,000 tonnes in weight.

Paris is a noteworthy rail, highway, and air transport centre. The syndicate organizes open transport and contracts it out to the RATP (working 347 transport lines, the Métro, eight tramway lines, and areas of the RER), the SNCF (operating rural rails, one tramway line and alternate segments of the RER) and the Optile consortium of private administrators overseeing 1,176 transport lines. Paris has a run of the Western European oceanic climate which is influenced by the North Atlantic Current. The general atmosphere during the time is mild and tolerably wet. Summer days are typically warm and wonderful with normal temperatures and a considerable amount of sunshine. Spring and Autumn have shockingly warm or cool climate happens frequently in the two seasons. In winter, daylight is rare; days are cool, nights cold yet for the most part above freezing with low temperatures. To reach the top level, at the dizzying elevation of 276 meters, requires an exhilarating elevator ride from the second level. Visiting the top level is one of the most thrilling things to do in Paris, but it is not for the faint of heart. And, the famous museum was also available in the Paris city, this museum contains famous painting called “Mona Lisa” painted by Leonardo da Vinci in 1503-1505.

The first thing you should do if you are ever in Paris is buy one of these from an authentic patisserie or boulangerie. One dish that gained popularity in southern France is Cassoulet. This dish is French comfort food at its best. If you ever find yourself in Burgundy mid-morning, then stop off for brunch and try this French version of poached eggs.

“Paris is not a city; it’s a world.”
