About Webinar

Covid-19 has outraged societies and dramatically changed everyday life throughout the globe. While unprecedented, our present circumstances have been deeply shaped by persistent societal realities — such as entrenched racial and economic inequality, proliferation of misinformation, and anxieties about the ability of the world's democracies to confront major crisis. Understanding the facts and taking reasonable measures protect yourself and those around you. We support you in keeping you stay healthy by arranging the “Annual Congress on Traditional Medicine” on November 05-06, 2020 as Webinar. Although the pandemic situation have settled we don't want to take any chances in your life so be safe, stay home and attend this gathering.
