PULSUS brings in a new spin on conferences by presenting the latest scientific improvements in your field. Listen to motivating keynotes from thought leaders, or rub elbows with pioneers across the globe. London is all set for an amazing event as PULSUS proudly presents the "World Congress on Bioavailability and Bioequivalence" slated on November 11-12, 2019 at London, UK.

PULSUS cordially welcome researchers, academicians, students and business professionals in the field of BABE professionals from around the world to participate in the upcoming BABE 2019. The meeting for this year will revolve around the theme "The difference in increased Bioequivalence and increased Bioavailability - Unwinding Innovations" thus relaying the most cutting edge findings in the field of BABE 2019. The two day meeting is going to be an event to look forward to for its enlightening symposiums & workshops from established experts of the field, exceptional keynote sessions directed by the best in the business. It will also prove to be a brilliant open door for the representatives from Universities and Institutes to cooperate with the world class researchers and an outstanding opportunity for businesses keen at expanding their global market reach. Interested individuals can confirm their participation by registering for the conference along with their colleagues. Register soon and avail exciting early bird discounts.

BABE 2019 welcomes attendees, presenters, and exhibitors from all over the world to London. We are delighted to invite you all to attend and register for the "World Congress on Bioavailability and Bioequivalence" which is going to be held during November 11-12, 2019 in London, UK. BABE 2019 has been designed in an interdisciplinary manner with a multitude of tracks to choose from every segment in Pharma, Clinical research, Bioavailability, and Bioequivalence, which provides you with a unique opportunity to meet up with peers from both industry and academia and establish a scientific network between them. We cordially invite all concerned people to come to join us at our event and make it successful by your participation.

For Researchers and Faculty Members:

- Speaker Presentations
- Poster Display
