ABOUT US

Chronic Disease 2021 (Webinar) extends an expert gathering, intended to connect, share and exchange ideas and views for promotion, prevention, treatment and care for chronic diseases. This chronic disease conference majorly focuses on the effective understanding of the disease origin, pathophysiology, risk factors and other clinical interpretations involved.

Experts from the academic and industrial community from all over the world will be joining us to share their most recent research works, patterns and findings. Chronic Disease 2021 will unite the worldwide pioneers in the field to display their investigations and studies along with other researchers. Young researchers can showcase their logical ideas and discoveries through oral sessions.

The 5th International Conference on Chronic Diseases is a two day event that will host about 40+ Scientific and technical sessions on leading and latest research trends related to the field.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Cardiologists, Nephrologists, Neurologists, Oncologists, Endocrinologists, Immunologists, Pharmacologists, Biotechnologists, Researchers, Nurse, Practitioners, Scientists, Medical Students, Industry Professionals, Infection and Quality Control Clinicians, Biomedical Researchers and others.
