Gastroenterology is the branch of science that deals with the Digestive system and its Disorders. Gastrointestinal disease affects the Gastrointestinal tract and the entire Digestive system. Most of the Gastrointestinal diseases are symptomatic, unfortunately few are asymptomatic. Doctors now have a way to diagnose the problem, see the extent of damage, and come up with the most likely solution for Gastrointestinal diseases. Physicians practicing in this field are called Gastroenterologists. GI diseases can be prevented by craving the way for perfect diet. Recent advancement in medicine and technology takes Gastrointestinal treatment to the next level. Hepatology appears to be emerging as a freestanding medical specialty. Hepatology is the field of liver disease. Strong Drug, Toxins, contaminated blood and alcohol are the key causes for Hepatitis. Hepatitis affects millions of individuals globally and is associated with several poor outcomes including liver transplant and liver cancer.

Rome is the capital and largest city of Italy. Rome is the famed city of the Roman Empire, the Seven Hills, La Dolce Vita (the sweet life), the Vatican City and Three Coins in the Fountain. Rome has an immensely rich historical heritage and cosmopolitan atmosphere, making it one of Europe's and the world's most visited, famous, influential and beautiful capitals. Modern Rome has 280 fountains and more than 900 churches. Eating out is one of Rome's great pleasures and the combination of romantic alfresco settings and superlative food is a guarantee of good times. Rome has a growing nightlife scene and is also seen as a shopping heaven, being regarded as one of the fashion capitals of the world. Pantheon is the best-preserved monument of Roman antiquity and it is remarkably intact. The independent Vatican City and its endless treasure troves of Sights, relics and the Vatican Museums attracts the tourists.
