MARKET ANALYSIS

In 2022, the global cosmetology market was valued at approximately $108.33 billion. By 2023, this figure is projected to increase to around $118.93 billion. Looking forward, the market is expected to surge to $316.05 billion by 2033, driven by an annual growth rate of 10.8% from 2023 to 2033, building on a 9.5% annual growth rate from 2018 to 2022.

Key Drivers of Growth:

The growing demand for cosmetic procedures such as facelifts, hair transplants, and liposuction is a major factor in this expansion. As more individuals seek to enhance their appearance, interest in cosmetic treatments continues to rise. Popular products like Botox and dermal fillers are frequently used for facial enhancements, and cosmetic procedures are increasingly popular across all genders. Social media influencers are also significantly impacting this trend by promoting cosmetic treatments to their followers.

Recent Trends in Cosmetology

Non-surgical treatments, including Botox and dermal fillers, are gaining popularity as people opt for less invasive methods to improve their appearance. Social media trends are fueling this demand, with influencers showcasing various cosmetic procedures.

In terms of specific procedures, eyelid surgeries, nose jobs, and breast enhancements are highly sought after. The American Society for Aesthetic Plastic Surgery (ASAPS) reports that in 2020, the U.S. accounted for 18% of facelifts, 14% of eyelid surgeries, and 15.2% of nose jobs performed.
