Dementia Care 2021 is approved for CEU's by the National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioner www.nccdp.org and International Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners www.iccdp.net

National Council of Certified Dementia Practitioners is open to all health care professionals, front line staff and First Responders who qualify for CDP certification and are interested in learning comprehensive dementia education, who value dementia education, who are committed to ending abuse and neglect and who value Certified Dementia Practitioner CDP certification.

The Council was formed to promote standards of excellence in dementia and Alzheimer's Disease education to professionals and other caregivers who provide services to dementia clients. As the number of dementia cases continues to increase nationally and worldwide, there is a great necessity to ensure that care givers are well trained to provide appropriate, competent, and sensitive direct care and support for the dementia patient.

About City and Venue

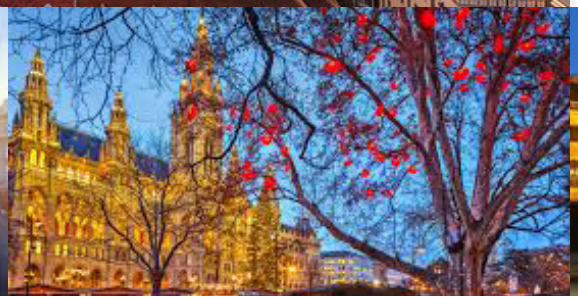

Vienna is Austria's national capital, largest city, and one of nine requirements. Vienna is Austria's primate city, with a populace of about 1.9 million (2.6 million inside the metropolitan zone, almost 33% of the nation's populace), and its social, monetary, and political focus. It is the seventh largest city in the European Union, by population within city confines.

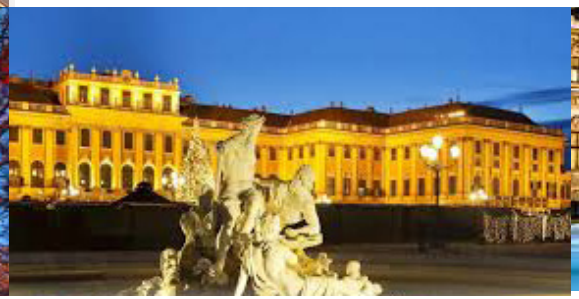

Vienna is possibly the richest district in the European Union: 25.7 percent of Austria's GDP in 2013 had a total territorial result of EUR 47,200 per capita. This adds up to 159 percent of the EU average. Beginning in 2012, the region strengthened its ranking of the most financially impressive urban communities landing at number nine on the 2015 list.

Vienna's city attaches significant importance to science and discusses and focuses on making a positive space for innovative work. Vienna has forced 1,329 research offices in 2014; 40,400 employees are used in the R&D sector and 35 percent of Austria's R&D costs are put resources into the region. With an examination share of 3.4% Vienna surpasses the Austrian normal of 2.77% and has just met the EU focus of 3.0% by 2020.

Climate: Vienna has a maritime environment and emphasizes a Cfb (maritime) atmosphere, as shown by the Köppen order. The town has warm summers, with seasonal rainfall that can hit its highest annual temperatures in July and August (66.6 and 66.5 mm individually) and normal high temperatures of about 21 to 27 ° C (70 to 81 ° F) from June to September, with a record high of over 38 ° C (100 ° F) and a record low of 5.6 ° C (42 ° F) in September.
