4TH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON

EURO NURSING AND HEALTH CARE

OCTOBER 23-25, 2023 | ZURICH, SWITZERLAND

https://euronursing.cmesociety.com/

INVITATION

EURO EURO NURSING 2023

It is our great pleasure to welcome you all to the 4th International Conference on Euro Nursing & Healthcare in the stunning city of Rome, Italy on December 14-16,2023.

This year's theme, "Advancing Nursing Practice in Europe: Innovations, Challenges, and Opportunities"

This conference provides a platform for healthcare professionals, researchers, academics, and scholars to come together and exchange ideas, share their research findings, and discuss the latest innovations and advancements in the fields of nursing and healthcare. We have a range of exciting presentations and discussions scheduled throughout the conference, including keynote speeches, panel discussions, and workshops, all led by prominent experts in their respective fields. In addition, there will be ample opportunities for networking and collaboration, allowing you to connect with peers and build valuable relationships that can enhance your research and professional growth. Reflects the need for constant evolution and progress in the healthcare industry. Our aim is to inspire new ideas and approaches that can contribute to the development of effective solutions to the challenges facing our profession, and ultimately improve the quality of care delivered to patients.

Once again, I extend a warm welcome to all of our attendees and guests. I hope that you will enjoy the conference and find it to be a valuable and rewarding experience.

Regards

Lara Lil | Euro Nursing 2023

ABOUT VENUE

Rome, the capital city of Italy, is a vibrant and historically rich metropolis that has played a significant role in shaping the Western world. With a history spanning over 2,500 years, Rome is often referred to as the “Eternal City” due to its enduring influence and timeless allure.

Founded in 753 BC, Rome was the heart of the Roman Empire, which reached its peak during the first and second centuries AD. The city was a center of political power, art, and culture, and its architectural achievements, such as the Colosseum, the Roman Forum, and the Pantheon, still stand as remarkable testaments to this ancient civilization.

One of Rome’s most iconic landmarks is the Vatican City, an independent city-state and the spiritual center of the Roman Catholic Church. It is home to St. Peter’s Basilica, the largest church in the world, and the magnificent Vatican Museums, housing priceless artworks, including Michelangelo’s frescoes in the Sistine Chapel.

Rome’s historical importance extends beyond ancient times. During the Renaissance, the city became a hub of artistic and intellectual advancements, with renowned figures like Leonardo da Vinci, Raphael, and Michelangelo leaving their indelible marks. Their works can be admired in various museums and galleries throughout the city, such as the Galleria Borghese and the Capitoline Museums.
