About City and Venue

PULSUS
WWW.PULSUSCONFERENCE.COM

Melbourne, city, capital of the state of Victoria, Australia. It is located at the head of Port Phillip Bay, on the south-eastern coast. Although the central city is the home of fewer than 100,000 people, it is the core of an extensive metropolitan area—the world's most southerly with a population of more than 1,000,000. Melbourne has a strong European feel in its old colonial infrastructure. At the city's centre is the modern Federation Square development, with plazas, bars, and restaurants by the Yarra River. The best places to visit for sightseeing and shopping, the best bars and restaurants in town and a few other fun, adventurous, weird and wonderful things to try.
