With a market share of more than 40% in Kidney transplants, the United States led the world in 2015. Additionally, due to changes in lifestyle, the prevalence of chronic Kidney diseases risk factors like diabetes, hypertension, and obesity is rising. Due to the rising need for chronic Kidney diseases screening tests that are now required in patients with diabetes and hypertension, there is a significant demand for the products. The International Diabetes Federation said that 463,0 million persons worldwide had diabetes in 2019, and that number is expected to rise to 700 million by 2045.
