ABOUT VENUE

Wean is one of the nine states in Austria, and Vienna is the largest metropolis. One-third of Austria's population, or 2.9 million people, live in the metropolitan area surrounding Vienna, the country's most populated city and primary metropolis. It also acts as the nation's political, economic, and cultural hub. It is the largest city on the Danube and the sixth most populous city in the entire European Union.

Vienna had a population of two million at the start of the 20th century, making it the largest German-speaking city in the world before the Austro-Hungarian Empire fell in World War I. It is currently Germany's second-largest city after Berlin. Many people live in Vienna.

The metropolitan area around the city, which has a population of 3 million, also includes the neighboring city of Bratislava. In 2001, the city was designated as a UNESCO World Historic Site.

Vienna is known as the "City of Music" and has a long musical tradition because many famous classical musicians, such as Beethoven and Mozart, called Vienna their home.
