PULSUS brings in a new spin on conferences by presenting the latest scientific improvements in your field. Listen to motivating keynotes from thought leaders, or rub elbows with pioneers across the globe. Paris is all set for an amazing event as PULSUS proudly presents the "6th World Congress on Microbial Biotechnology" slated on June 17-18, 2019 at Paris, France.

PULSUS cordially welcome researchers, academicians, students and business professionals in the field of microbiology and biotechnology professionals from around the world to participate in the upcoming Microbial Biotechnology 2019. The meeting for this year will revolve around the theme "Advancement and Technological Innovations in Microbial Biotechnology" thus relaying the most cutting edge findings in the field of Microbiology and Biotechnology. The two day meeting is going to be an event to look forward to for its enlightening symposiums & workshops from established experts of the field, exceptional keynote sessions directed by the best in the business. It will also prove to be a brilliant open door for the representatives from Universities and Institutes to cooperate with the world class researchers and an outstanding opportunity for businesses keen at expanding their global market reach. Interested individuals can confirm their participation by registering for the conference along with their colleagues. Register soon and avail exciting early bird discounts.

Pulsus Group is an internationally renowned medical peer-review publisher and conferences organizer established in the year 1984 publishes and hosts the work of researchers in a manner that exemplifies the highest standards in research integrity.

PULSUS conferences act as a catalyst on the research trends that really matter and spurring their adoption by exploring and disseminating cutting-edge information. Thus, mainly adhere to stringent peer-review procedure with a view to set an example in promoting standard medical research with integrity. As an ardent supporter of medical publishing, Pulsus Group closely associates with the European Federation of Biotechnology, Italian Society for General Microbiology and Microbial biotechnology, Federation of European Microbiological Societies, Society for Industrial Microbiology and Biotechnology, Society for Applied Microbiology, Canadian Society of Microbiologists, American Society for Microbiology.

Pulsus Conferences explore the future by connecting minds and spreading brilliance at Pulsus Group annual conferences & meetings. Meet your colleagues, discuss your specialty, spread and aid, learn & grow in association with 1000+ scientific societies from The USA, Europe, The Middle East, Africa and The Asia-Pacific region. Pulsus group is closely associated with globally renowned academic and research societies.

Pulsus Conferences believe that true technology and innovation depends on hearing from, and listening to, people with a variety of perspectives. Pulsus Conferences enhances the technology for people from underrepresented groups by actively recruiting diverse speakers for our events, signing up a broad variety of authors for journals and videos, and taking part in ongoing conversations about the value of diversity in the communities we serve.

About City and Venue

PULSUS
WWW.PULSUSCONFERENCE.COM

Paris is the capital and most populous city of France, Europe with an area of 105 square kilometres and a population of 2,206,488. Since the 17th century, Paris has been one of Europe's major centres of finance, commerce, fashion, science, music, and painting. According to the Economist Intelligence Unit Worldwide Cost of Living Survey in 2018, Paris was the second-most expensive city in the world, behind Singapore and ahead of Zurich, Hong Kong, Oslo and Geneva. Paris is especially known for its museums and architectural landmarks: The Louvre was the most visited art museum in the world in 2017, with 8.1 million visitors. The Musée d'Orsay and Musée de l'Orangerie are noted for their collections of French Impressionist art, and the Pompidou Centre Musée National d'Art Moderne has the largest collection of modern and contemporary art in Europe. The historical district along the Seine in the city centre is classified as a UNESCO Heritage Site.
