MARKET ANALYSIS

The global natural skin care products market size was estimated at USD 6.7 billion in 2021, and from 2022 to 2030, it is anticipated to expand at a CAGR of 6.6%. Consumers has increased the demand for natural and organic products. The present Covid-19 pandemic has had a substantial negative impact on the growth of the cosmetics and personal care industry.

Natural Products 2023 conference gives a systematic, comprehensive review of the market's current demand and aims to identify the most promising commercial opportunities. The highest market share is still held by North America, which is anticipated to continue to dominate the industry in 2022. Over the forecast period, demand for organic products in Asia-Pacific is expected to increase at a rapid CAGR of 16.3%.

ABOUT VENUE

Rome is the city where hope springs eternal. It is a city that is proud of its ancient glorious heritage, a city that once expanded its empire throughout Europe, Africa and Asia. First-time visitors may be easily overwhelmed by all this magnificent city has to offer. After all, one can find history and art on almost every street corner. That's why visitors may want to do their homework to narrow down what they want to see and do before they get on a plane or train bound for the Italian capital.

Rome is divided into several districts with its center, the Colosseo district, containing the most ancient attractions like the Colosseum, Capitoline Hill and the Roman Forum. On the outskirts of the center is Old Rome, featuring the Pantheon, stunning cathedrals, plazas and Renaissance architecture. Rome, Italy Rome, historic city and capital of the province of Rome (province), of the region of Lazio (region) and of the country of Italy. Rome is located in the center of the Italian peninsula, on the Tiber River, about 24 km from the Tyrrhenian Sea. Once the capital of an ancient republic and empire whose armies and regimes shaped the Western world in antiquity and left seemingly indelible marks afterward, the spiritual headquarters physical and cultural capital of the Roman Catholic Church and the site of artistic and intellectual heights, Rome was the Eternal City, still today a political capital, religious center and memorial to the imagination. past creativity. The Roman countryside, Campagna, was one of the last regions of central Italy to be inhabited in antiquity. Rome was built on a defensible hill that dominated the lower, high-banked final river, where crossing the Tiber was facilitated by an island in the middle. This hill, the Palatine Hill, is part of a group of hills, traditionally counted as seven, around which is the ancient city. The other hills are the Capitol, Quirinal, Viminal, Esquiline, Caelian and Aventine.
