MARKET ANALYSIS

The global natural skin care products market size was estimated at USD 6.7 billion in 2021, and from 2022 to 2030, it is anticipated to expand at a CAGR of 6.6%. Consumers has increased the demand for natural and organic products. The present Covid-19 pandemic has had a substantial negative impact on the growth of the cosmetics and personal care industry. Natural Products 2024 conference gives a systematic, comprehensive review of the market's current demand and aims to identify the most promising commercial opportunities. The highest market share is still held by North America, which is anticipated to continue to dominate the industry in 2022. Over the forecast period, demand for organic products in Asia-Pacific is expected to increase at a rapid CAGR of 16.3%.

ABOUT VENUE

Paris, a city that lives up to its reputation: a place filled with incredible cuisine, rich culture, and breathtaking vistas at every corner. With its 18 districts, exploring it all in one visit might be a challenge, yet each area boasts its distinctive charm. The iconic 7th arrondissement stands out as the meeting point of art and history, showcasing not just the Eiffel Tower but also the remarkable Musée du quai Branly, home to a remarkable indigenous art collection just a stone's throw away. Venture to Montmartre (the 18th), famous for its bohemian shops and charming brasseries—an essential stop while ascending or descending from Sacre Coeur. Despite the French mastery of fine dining, street food here is a must-try, boasting world-class kebabs and falafel. And wherever you find yourself, don't miss the chance to visit a sidewalk cafe, indulge in a glass of wine, and observe passersby—a true taste of Parisian culture.
