Market Analysis

Reducing and eliminating racial and ethnic disparities in renal failure mortality in Atlanta city. According to recent statistics report, nearly 26 million adults apart from young and old aged people are suffering from Chronic Kidney Disease complaints and millions of others are at increased risk. The numbers of Kidney transplantations are seemingly very high and in the year of 2015 alone, there are around 15000 kidney transplantations. Due to the rapid increase for the risk of renal disorders, Kidney 2017 aims to decrease the incidence rate of kidney disease through its international conference on nephrology and cordially invites participants across the globe to discuss and arrive under possible solutions for one of the major critical problems of mankind. In order to reduce the mortality rate this conference is going to be held at Atlanta.

Annual Nephrology 2017 provides the best opportunity to meet eminent scientists from all over the world. Accepted papers will be published in the following Pulses Group Journals.

- Journal of Clinical & Experimental Nephrology
- Journal of Nephrology & Therapeutics
- Journal of Kidney
- Internal Medicine: Open Access
