About City and Venue

PULSUS
WWW.PULSUSCONFERENCE.COM

Tokyo is the busy capital of Japan, mixed with ancient temples and ultra-modern and classic sky craps. Meiji Shinto's opulent shrine is famed for its magnificent gateway and the surrounding forests. In the center of the large public gardens is the Imperial Palace. Many of the city's museums have exhibits from Ancient Art (in Tokyo National Museum) to a restored Kabuki Theater (in Edo-Tokyo Museum). Tokyo is a popular place to play animated, electronic, manga and video games.

The epicenter is Akihabara, if anything. This transforms into a labyrinth of electric lights and colors, giving tourists a sensory overload at night. Here are some of the main activities to get lost, searching for doors and images.
