Welcome Message

PULSUS
WWW.PULSUSCONFERENCE.COM

PULSUS GROUP takes an immense pleasure to extend our warm welcome to invite all the participants from all over the world to attend "2nd International Conference on Clinical and Experimental Neuropsychology" scheduled during October 14, 2020 at a core of plenary and concurrent sessions based on pivotal issues in the Psychology and Neuropsychology sector.

Pulsus Group is an internationally renowned peer-review publisher in scientific, technical, and medical journals established in the year 1984 with offices in Ontario, Canada and Hyderabad, India has acquired Andrew John Publishing and openaccessjournals.com to expand its Open Access Publishing through its 50+ journals in association with 20+ International medical and scientific societies.

Neuropsychology 2020 is a forum to explore issues of mutual concern as well as exchange knowledge, share evidence and ideas, and generate solutions. The main focus of Neuropsychology 2020 is to present research findings, discuss research methodology and policy issues, and build and maintain essential networks between researchers, practitioners, policy makers and representatives of consumer organizations. Neuropsychology conference works with the theme "A Clinical Approach on Experimental Neuropsychology" aims to discover advances in psychology practice, management and education in relation to human psychology disparities as well as a breadth of other topics. Patients with access to a regular psychologist have lower overall health care costs than those without one, and health outcomes improve.

Market Analysis

Neuropsychology Market recently every 3 seconds one person on this planet develops dementia. Dementia is the syndrome which causes memory loss, and leads to the problem in the brain. The most common form of dementia is Alzheimer diseases. It mostly exists for the older age people. It may also come for the younger people based upon their body condition.

Before 1990 the rate of dementia is less, but in the year of 1990 to 2016 it increased 117% globally, according to the study findings. The number of dementia rate increased from 20.2 million in 1990 to 43.8 million in 2016 between 1990 and 2016. In 2017 case study, 46.8 million individuals are living with Dementia and this number is increased to 50 million in the year of 2019.

The market evaluation of diverse reports says that the combination estimation and overall fee of dementia is US$818 billion as of 2017, which signify about 1.09% of worldwide GDP. Around 2021, the worldwide price of Alzheimer's will blow up to a trillion dollar from $818 billion. The reports have shown that dementia alone has increases through 35% seeing that 2010. The document updates on Alzheimer's disease International's (ADI) records on dementia's global prevalence, prevalence and cost, highlighting dementia's increasing effect on low and middle earnings countries (LMICs). This discern incorporates fees credited to casual care and synchronizes charges of social care and the immediate charges of medicinal care, the direct scientific care expenses about 20% of global dementia prices, whilst direct social sector expenses and casual care prices each account for about 40%.
