About City and Venue

PULSUS
WWW.PULSUSCONFERENCE.COM

Prague has a feeling of Western Europe meets Eastern Europe and it is a joy to explore because there is both history and beauty. There are so many things to do in Prague that you could spend a month exploring this city and not get bored.

Prague is well-known for its beautiful architecture and beer and it is the Golden City to Explore the charm.

Prague is beautiful any time of the day, but there is something extra special about it at night. As the sun goes down, and the lights come up, the historic buildings are lovelier, the narrow and curved cobblestone streets become romantic, and the view from the Vltava River is breath-taking.

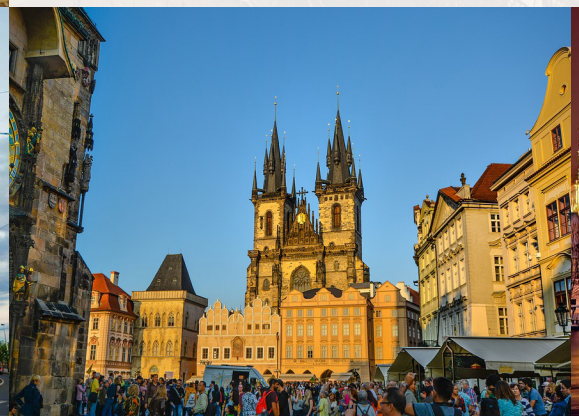

The city of Prague is popular with tourists as there is the number of places to explore. The best and famous place to visit in Prague is Prague Castle, Charles Bridge, The Clementinum and the National Library, The Old Town Square and the Astronomical Clock, St. Vitus Cathedral, The Church of Our Lady before Týn, The National Gallery in Prague, The Municipal House, Prague Zoo, The Jewish Quarter (Josefov), The Strahov Monastery and Library, The Petrín Lookout Tower, The Lennon Wall, St. Nicholas Church, Wenceslas Square, The National Museum, The National Theatre, The Dancing House, The Hilltop Fortress: Vyšehrad, The Olšany Cemetery and more.

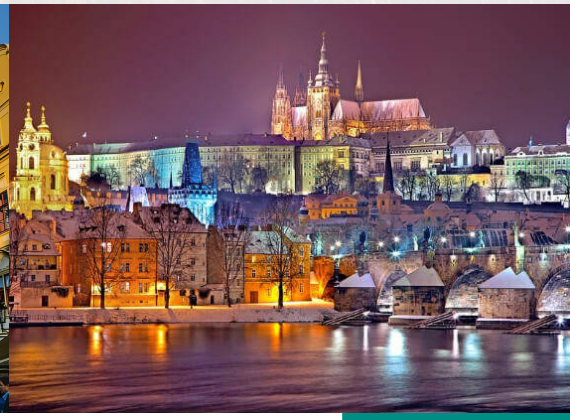

If you're visiting Prague for the first time and want to see the city's top attractions, the best area to stay in Prague 1. The city is divided into numbered districts, and Prague 1 is home to the city's historical centre and top tourist sites such as the Old Town (Staré Město); the New Town; the Lesser Town or Little Quarter (Malá Strana); and Prague Castle. Basing yourself in Prague 1 means you're never more than a short walk from these prime areas and attractions, and if you want to venture further afield, Prague's public transport system is excellent.

Sightseeing: For first-time visitors, taking a tour of the city is a great idea. This is a good way to see the layout and learn some of the histories. A worthwhile introductory tour is the Prague in One Day Sightseeing Tour, a popular 3.5-hour guided tour with coach transport and a walking tour of some of the city's most famous landmarks, including the famous Prague Castle.
