8TH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON NEUROSCIENCE AND NEUROLOGICAL DISORDERS

SEPTEMBER 28-29, 2022 | EDINBURGH, SCOTLAND

https://neuroscience.pulsusconference.com/

INVITATION

NEUROSCIENCE 2022

On behalf of the Conference committee, we are ecstatic to welcome you all to the 8th International Conference on Neuroscience and Neurological Disorders scheduled to be held in Edinburgh, Scotland during 28-29 September 2022.

PULSUS brings in a new spin on conferences by presenting the latest scientific improvements in the field of Neuroscience. Listen to motivating keynotes from thought leaders, or rub elbows with pioneers across the globe. Edinburgh is all set for an amazing event as we proudly present this International event and cordially welcome researchers, academicians, students and business professionals in the field of Neuroscience and Neurological Disorders from around the world to participate in the upcoming Neuroscience 2022. This series will revolve around the theme "Neuroscience! Heal the world of Neurological Impairments" thus relaying the most cutting edge findings in the field of Neuroscience and its advancements. The two-day meeting is going to be an event to look forward to for its enlightening symposiums & workshops from established experts of the field, exceptional keynote sessions directed by the best in the business. It will also prove to be a brilliant open door for the representatives from Universities and Institutes to cooperate with world-class researchers and an outstanding opportunity for businesses keen on expanding their global market reach. Interested individuals can confirm their participation by registering for the conference along with their colleagues. Register soon and avail of exciting early bird discounts.

ABOUT VENUE

Edinburgh, Scotland: Edinburgh is one of the most beautiful cities in the UK. It has mild Autumn at the end of September making it the perfect not so hot and not so cold temperature to take a stroll in the city. The Scottish capital is a centre of culture and the arts and is especially well-known for its festivals. Edinburgh may seem at times to be two separate cities, so different are the 18th-century New Town's elegant Georgian neighbourhoods of stately terraces from the Old Town's narrow winding lanes, steep staircases, and hidden passageways.

While many of the most popular tourist attractions are along the Royal Mile, which follows the crest of the hill between the castle and Holyrood Palace and Princes Street, be sure to explore the other side of the hill, where you'll find the picturesque Grassmarket. Being one of Edinburgh's most famous market squares since the Middle Ages, it rings with history. In this pedestrian-friendly area of shops and cafés look for the White Hart Inn, where Robbie Burns once wrote poetry.

For 2 days in September, the people gather to celebrate the Edinburgh Mela - A vibrant celebration of Edinburgh's diverse cultures. Edinburgh Mela turns Leith Links into a colourful party in September. Music, art and dance from around the world feature on 3 live stages, showcasing everything from Indian R&B to African blues. Past shows have included Bollywood dances, Chinese martial arts performances, outdoor theatre and flamenco fusion. The Global Food Village has a mouth-watering selection of international snacks, from spicy samosa to sweet jalebi. There are also stalls selling a cosmopolitan range of clothing, jewellery and handmade carvings. Take the kids to Mela Kidzone, where they can enjoy craft workshops, hands-on activities, trampolines and bouncy castles.
