About City and Venue

Rome today is one of the most important tourist destinations of the world, due to the incalculable immensity of its archaeological and artistic treasures, as well as for the charm of its unique traditions, the beauty of its panoramic views, and the majesty of its magnificent villas. Rome is the third most visited city in the EU, after London and Paris, and receives an average of 7–10 million tourists a year, which sometimes doubles on holy years. According to the City Brands Index, Rome is considered the world's second most historically, educationally and culturally interesting and beautiful city.

As the capital of Italy, Rome hosts all the principal institutions of the nation, including the Presidency of the Republic, the government the Parliament, the main judicial Courts, and the diplomatic representatives of all the countries for the states of Italy and Vatican City. Many international institutions are in Rome, notably cultural and scientific ones.
