Welcome Message

Dear Colleagues,

In behalf of the Organizing Committee and as a Keynote Speaker, it is an honor to welcome you at Nursing Forum 2020 to be held during 29 – 30 of July in Singapore.

This event is an excellent opportunity to contact scholars from around the world and exchange thoughts, new methodologies, and experiences in the field of Nursing.

The program is composed of 25 tracks that will provide the attendees with a diverse spectrum of disciplinary inquiry. I am sure that all of us will return to our countries with novel ideas to enrich Nursing theory and practice.

Join us in Singapore and meet Nurses from around the world that promote research as a way of heightening the profession.

Kind regards,

Ursula Serdarevich, Ph.D.
Favaloro University
Buenos Aires, Argentina

Welcome Message

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Organizing committee, it is my honour and immense pleasure to welcome you to the 2nd World Nursing Forum, on July 29 and 30 2020, in the eco-friendly country of the Singapore!

I trust your time spent at this Forum will be uplifting and memorable, and the opportunity to meet and network with clinicians, educators, researchers and administrators from the global community invaluable. We hope you will learn, share and take away productive practice and pedagogical perspectives from the conference.

I am confident that every participant will be enriched not only by the information and by new connections, but also by the art and history this city at the heart of Asia has to offer. I am looking forward to meeting and welcoming you in person.

With warm regards,

Elizabeth Simon, Ph.D, RN, ANP-BC

TESTIMONIALS

NURSING FORUM
2020

I am Elizabeth Simon from United states New York Institute of Technology. I am a professor of Nursing. The conference was started with such efficiency at Vienna. Everything started on time and time management was very excellent. The hotel stay was wonderful, and the food was fantastic. The arrangements were efficient also. It was a great networking opportunity for people from all over the world like Lithuania, Kosovo, India, France, Switzerland, USA, Argentina, Italy was just wonderful. Thank you!!

I am Julie Benoit. I was a participant of World Nursing Forum 2019. I really appreciate this congress where I was a participant and I was a Moderator as well. The organization was pretty good, and food was excellent. The hotel is really nice. Everything went very well. So, it was really professional organization. I wanted to say thanks to the organization, who co-ordinated the event very well. So, as a moderator for the first time it's really honours for me to be the part the congress.

This is Ursula Serdarevich from Favaloro University, Argentina. I presented my paper in this Nursing Forum 2019 at Vienna, Austria. It was a great experience to share the ideas with the eminent from different countries of the world. The conference was great. I hope to see you all again soon. Good luck from Argentina!

MARKET ANALYSIS

NURSING FORUM
2020

Nursing is a profession in the health care which helps patient to overcome the illness. They have a unique scope of practice and can practice independently. They act like a back bone in the hospitals, they also work with all members of the health care team to provide the care needed by each patient as an individual. Nurses guide their patients and patient's families to overcome their illness. As educators, they help whole community by teaching individuals and groups how to take steps to improve or maintain their health. Nursing profession gives a wide range of employment opportunities including medical practitioners to doctoral-level researchers and physician assistant. Nurses are health professionals who provide focused and highly personalized care. They are also in high demand—employment of registered nurses is projected to grow 22% from 2017 to 2027, quite faster growth than the average for all occupations, according to the studies.

ABOUT SINGAPORE

Singapore, an island city-state off southern Malaysia, is a global financial center with a tropical climate and multicultural population. giant. It has been Southeast Asia's most modern city for over a century. The city blends Malay, Chinese, Arab, Indian and English cultures and religions. Its unique ethnic tapestry affords visitors a wide array of sightseeing and culinary opportunities from which to choose. A full calendar of traditional festivals and holidays celebrated throughout the year adds to its cultural appeal. Its colonial core centers on the Padang, a cricket field since the 1830s and now flanked by grand buildings such as City Hall, with its 18 Corinthian columns. In Singapore's circa-1820 Chinatown stands the red-and-gold Buddha Tooth Relic Temple, said to house one of Buddha's teeth.

It's a city of (man-made) waterfalls and the home to the world's first night zoo, It's one of the world's greenest cities. There are tons of off-the-beaten track neighbourhoods to explore. There's always something to celebrate in Singapore.
