TESTIMONIALS

NURSING FORUM
2021

I am Elizabeth Simon from United states New York Institute of Technology. I am a professor of Nursing. The conference was started with such efficiency at Vienna. Everything started on time and time management was very excellent. The hotel stay was wonderful, and the food was fantastic. The arrangements were efficient also. It was a great networking opportunity for people from all over the world like Lithuania, Kosovo, India, France, Switzerland, USA, Argentina, Italy was just wonderful. Thank you!!

I am Julie Benoit. I was a participant of World Nursing Forum 2019. I really appreciate this congress where I was a participant and I was a Moderator as well. The organization was pretty good, and food was excellent. The hotel is really nice. Everything went very well. So, it was really professional organization. I wanted to say thanks to the organization, who co-ordinated the event very well. So, as a moderator for the first time it's really honours for me to be the part the congress.

This is Ursula Serdarevich from Favaloro University, Argentina. I presented my paper in this Nursing Forum 2019 at Vienna, Austria. It was a great experience to share the ideas with the eminent from different countries of the world. The conference was great. I hope to see you all again soon. Good luck from Argentina!

MARKET ANALYSIS

Nursing is a health-care profession that assists patients in overcoming sickness. They can practise autonomously and have a specific scope of practise. They serve as a backbone in hospitals and collaborate with all members of the health-care team to deliver the treatment that each patient requires. Nurses assist patients and their families in overcoming their illnesses. They assist the entire community as educators by teaching individuals and groups how to enhance or maintain their health. Medical practitioners, doctoral-level researchers, and physician assistants are just a few of the jobs available in the nursing field. Nurses are health-care specialists who provide specialised, one-on-one care. Registered nurses are also in high demand; according to the studies, employment of registered nurses is expected to expand 22% from 2017 to 2027, far faster than the average for all occupations.
