MARKET ANALYSIS

Physiotherapy is a growing market due to the increasing demand for physical therapy services. The global physiotherapy market was valued at $32.2 billion in 2020 and is expected to grow at a CAGR of 6.8% from 2021 to 2028.

The factors driving this growth include an aging population, an increase in chronic diseases, and a rise in sports injuries. Technological advancements in physiotherapy equipment and increasing awareness of the benefits of physiotherapy are also contributing to the growth of the market.

In terms of regional growth, North America and Europe are currently the largest markets for physiotherapy, but the Asia Pacific region is expected to witness significant growth due to the increasing prevalence of chronic diseases and a growing elderly population.

In terms of pricing, physiotherapy treatments in Amsterdam can be relatively expensive, with costs ranging from €40 to €100 per session, depending on the type of treatment and the provider. However, many clinics offer health insurance reimbursement, which can help offset some of the costs for patients.
