Invitation

Pulsus brings in a new spin on conferences by presenting the latest scientific improvements in your field. Listen to motivating keynotes from thought leaders or rub elbows with pioneers across the globe. London is all set for an amazing event as Pulsus proudly presents the “International Conference on Sustainable development” slated on June 20-21, 2022 at Rome, Italy.

PULSUS cordially welcome researchers, academicians, students and business professionals in the field of Oncology from around the world to participate in the upcoming Sustainable 2022. The meeting for this year will revolve around the theme “Fostering a Sustainable and Equitable Modern Environment” thus relaying the most advanced technology in the field of Sustainable development. The two day meeting is going to be an event to look forward to for its enlightening symposiums & workshops from established experts of the field, exceptional keynote sessions directed by the best in the business.

It will also prove to be a brilliant open door for the representatives from Universities and Institutes to cooperate with the world class researchers and an outstanding opportunity for businesses keen at expanding their global market reach. Interested individuals can confirm their participation by registering for the conference along with their colleagues. Register soon and avail exciting early bird discounts.

Venue

Rome is the capital of Italy and also serves as the capital of the Lazio region. it is also the country's most populated commune. It is the fourth-most populous city in the European Union by population within city limits. Rome is the only city in the world that has another country inside it. Vatican City is the smallest independent state in the world covering an area of just 44 hectares; nestled right in the heart of Rome. Has a population of just over 800, its army, its currency, and its own post office.

Rome today is one of the most important tourist destinations of the world, due to its archaeological and artistic treasures, as well as for the charm of its unique traditions, the beauty of its panoramic views.

The economy of Rome is characterized by the absence of heavy industry, but commercial activities especially banking and the development of tourism are extremely important to its economy. Universities, national radio, and television, and the movie industry in Rome are also important parts of the economy. Rome hosts major international and worldwide political and cultural organizations, such as the International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD), World Food Programme (WFP), Food and Agricultural Organization (FAO).
