About Rome

Rome the 'Eternal City' is the capital of Italy and of the Lazio region. Rome is regarded as one of the world's most beautiful ancient cities, and contains vast amounts of priceless works With 2.9 million residents in 1,285 km2 it is also the country's largest and most populated commune and fourth-most populous city in the European Union. The city is located in the central-western portion of the Italian Peninsula, along the shores of Tiber River. The Vatican City is an independent country geographically located within the city boundaries of Rome, the only existing example of a country within a city: for this reason Rome has been often defined as capital of two states

Rome has astonishing artistic heritage and contains priceless works of art, palaces, museums, parks, churches, gardens, basilicas, temples, villas, piazzas, theatres, and other venues in general. As one of the world's most important and visited cities there are numerous popular tourist attractions. The 5 most visited places in Rome are The Colosseum ,Pantheon, Trevi Fountain, Sistine and The Roman Forum Having been the center of one of the world's greatest civilizations ever, Rome has exerted a huge influence over the world in its millennium long history. With wonderful palaces, ancient churches and basilicas, grand Roman monuments, ornate statues and graceful fountains, Rome has an immensely rich historical heritage and cosmopolitan atmosphere.

Rome is a nationwide and major international center for higher education, containing numerous academies, colleges and universities. It boasts a large variety of academies and colleges, and has always been a major worldwide intellectual and educational center, especially during Ancient Rome and the Renaissance, along with Florence. According to the City Brands Index, Rome is considered the world's second most historically, educationally and culturally interesting and beautiful city.
