11TH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON

VIROLOGY, INFLUENZA, AND INFECTIOUS DISEASES

NOVEMBER 16-17, 2026 | LONDON, UK

INVITATION

VIROLOGY 2026

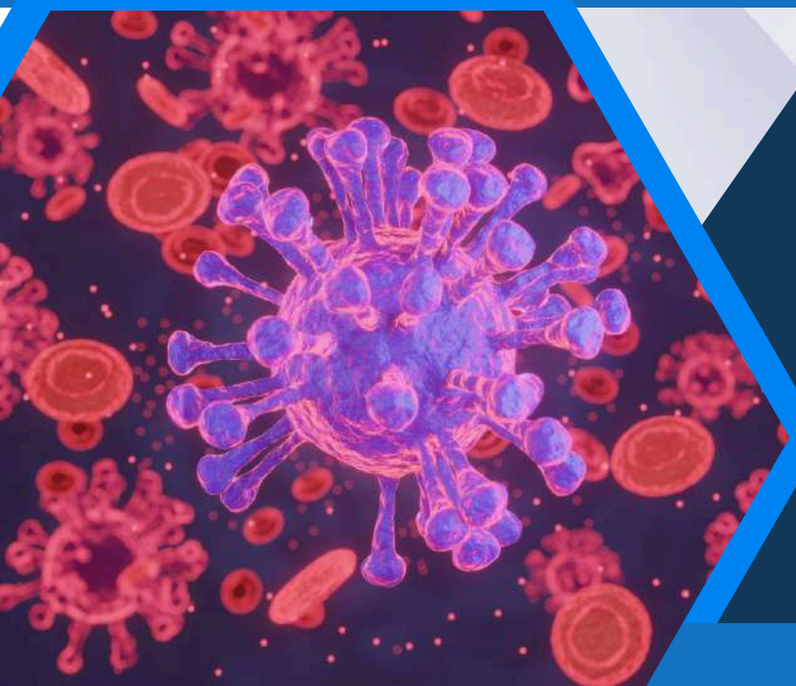

Greetings

We are pleased to welcome you to the 11th International Conference on Virology, Influenza, and Infectious Diseases , taking place on November 16–17, 2026, in London, UK. This conference will bring together virologists, infectious disease specialists, researchers, healthcare professionals, and industry experts from around the world to share knowledge, discuss recent advancements, and explore emerging challenges in the field. The scientific program will feature keynote presentations, research sessions, and interactive discussions focused on virology, influenza, and infectious diseases. We look forward to welcoming you to London for an engaging and valuable conference experience.

Market Analysis

The global virology and infectious diseases field is experiencing steady growth, driven by increasing concerns about emerging viral outbreaks, rising prevalence of infectious diseases, and expanding investments in public health systems. Virology research, diagnostic services, and infectious disease management are expected to grow at a strong pace between 2025 and 2030, supported by greater demand for disease surveillance and prevention strategies.

TARGET AUDIENCE

- Virologists
- Infectious Disease Specialists
- Microbiologists
- Immunologists
- Influenza Researchers
- Clinical Researchers and Scientists
- Epidemiologists
- Public Health Professionals
- Physicians and Healthcare Practitioners
- Laboratory Technologists
- Vaccine Researchers and Developers
