5TH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON

WOMENS HEALTH AND WELL BEING

JUNE 11-12, 2026 | PARIS, FRANCE

https://womenshealth.cmesociety.com/

INVITATION

Womens Health 2026

Dear Esteemed Colleagues and Delegates,

It is our great pleasure to welcome you to the 5th International Conference on Women's Health and Well-being, scheduled for June 11–12, 2026, in the historic and culturally rich city of Paris, France. Building upon the success of our previous editions, this year's conference unites leading professionals, researchers, clinicians, and advocates who are committed to advancing the global landscape of women's health.

With a focus on key areas such as reproductive health, gynecology, fertility, breast and ovarian cancer, menopause, mental well-being, nutrition, and holistic care, the conference serves as a comprehensive platform for sharing innovative ideas and presenting the latest scientific advancements.

Set against the inspiring backdrop of Paris—renowned for its intellectual heritage, vibrant academic environment, and timeless charm—our two-day program features high-level presentations, expert-led sessions, panel discussions, and collaborative networking opportunities. The agenda is thoughtfully designed to promote interdisciplinary dialogue and empower participants with actionable insights to enhance women's health and quality of life worldwide.

We warmly encourage all attendees to participate actively, share expertise, and contribute to shaping the future of women's health care.

We look forward to welcoming you to Paris for an engaging, enriching, and impactful experience at Women's Health 2026.

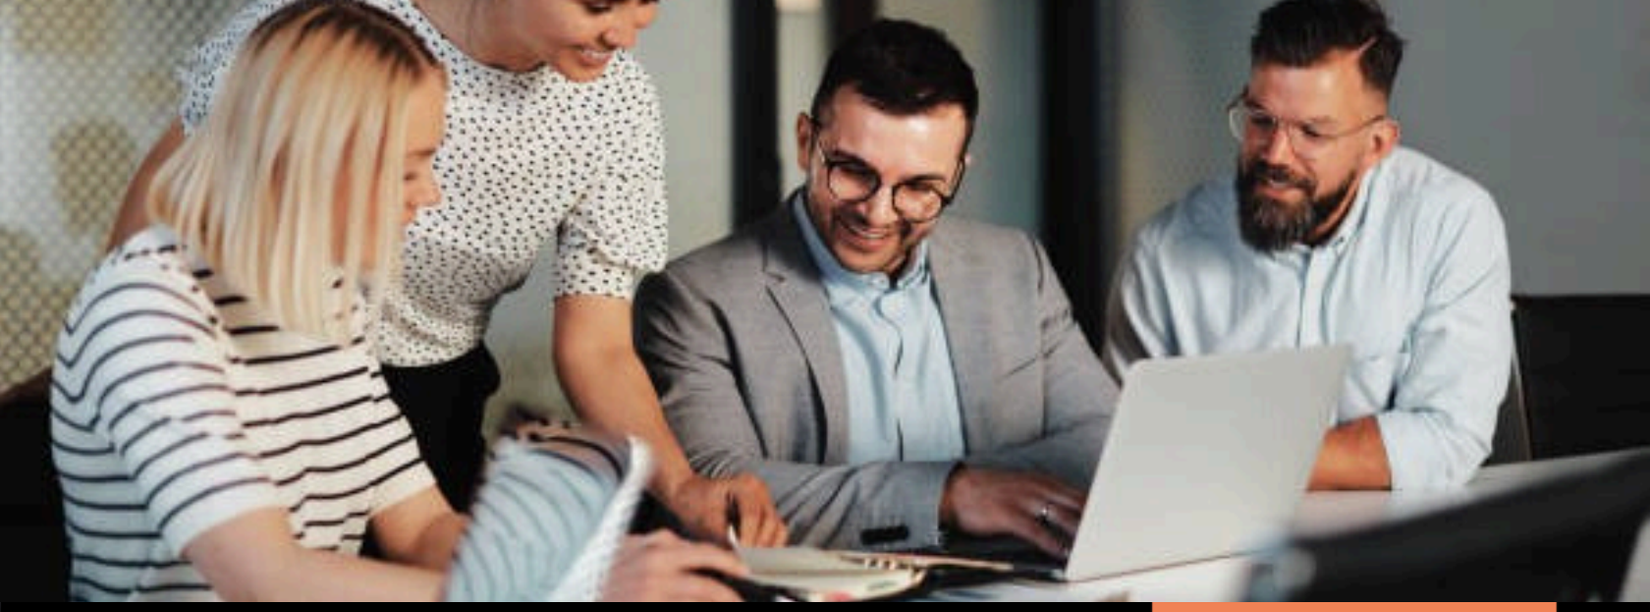

Warm regards,
Sophia Wilson

MARKET ANALYSIS

The global women's health market continues to gain strong momentum, supported by rising awareness, improved access to healthcare, and continuous advancements in medical research and technology. As reported by Fortune Business Insights, the women's health market was valued at USD 40.29 billion in 2022 and is expected to grow at a CAGR of 8.4%, reaching over USD 65.1 billion by 2030.
This growth is fueled by the increasing prevalence of conditions such as breast and ovarian cancer, polycystic ovary syndrome (PCOS), menopause-related complications, reproductive and hormonal disorders, and maternal health challenges. Additionally, a greater emphasis on preventive care, fertility treatments, mental health, holistic wellness, and personalized medicine is broadening the global scope of women's healthcare services.
Within this evolving landscape, the 5th International Conference on Women's Health and Well-being, taking place in Paris, France, will serve as a crucial platform to examine emerging trends, share scientific progress, and highlight innovative approaches to women's health. By uniting clinicians, researchers, healthcare professionals, and policymakers, the conference aims to promote impactful dialogue, strengthen global collaboration, and advance comprehensive solutions to enhance the health and well-being of women worldwide.
