About City and Venue

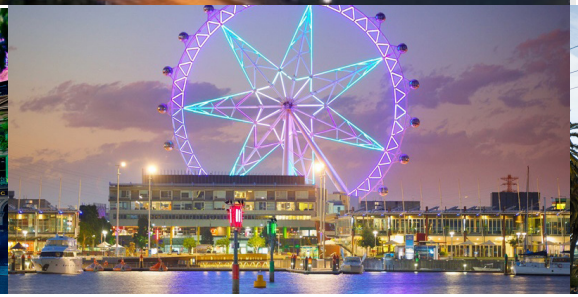

Melbourne is the capital and most populous city of Australia's state of Victoria and Australia's second most populous region. It covers a large part of Port Phillip Bay's coastline and has a population of 5 million people. Melbourne is considered the cultural hub of Australia, and perhaps Australia's most politically conservative region. Total trade across the Port of Melbourne grew up to 97.1 million tons of sales by 2.2 percent over the previous financial year. Walking around its avenues, a visitor can eventually run into houses of Gothic architecture and modern high-tech skyscrapers; a variety of art galleries, museums, and theatres.

Melbourne is a blend of busy streets, world-class restaurants & fascinating museums. Locals love their coffee and serve it in abundance in cozy cafes. There is always a sense of excitement here– whether in the interesting flavours of the city or in the intense rivalries of sports. Attend a sporting event, sip a cocktail on a rooftop and reveal the tales that are concealed within the architecture of Melbourne.

Melbourne,Beat out many of the most popular coffee cities in the world, including Rome and Vienna. Popular for its street art, deemed one of the world's street art cities. There is Even a street art tour in Melbourne, run by street artists, for those who want a deeper understanding of what they see, how it's achieved and who's active in this incredible underground art scene. Flinders Street Station's main entrance is a picturesque cultural symbol of Melbourne that can be seen on many postcards or travel brochures: this beautiful building was built in 1910, and is listed in the Victorian Heritage Registry. Melbourne is renowned for its live music scene, particularly rock music. The Corner Hotel, the Evelyn Hotel, the Spotted Mallard, the Post Office Hotel, the Ding Dong Lounge, the Esplanade Hotel and the Palais Theatre are some popular places to catch a band.5.The Botanic Gardens are within walking distance from the centre of the city, providing an oasis of tranquility, harmony and greenery just outside the city. The Immigration Museum is a celebration of modern Australia's melting pot and the many cultures that have come together to make this country what it is today.
