INVITATION

STROKE CONGRESS 2023

Greetings!

We are delighted to extend a warm greeting to all of you at the 2023 International Congress on Stroke and Neurological Diseases, which will be held in Amsterdam, the Netherlands, from November 02–04, 2023.

Experts in stroke and neurological diseases will have the chance to network, communicate, and share information and expertise at Stroke Congress 2023.

By developing innovative methods for illness prevention, diagnosis, and treatment, we hope to better comprehend these complex ailments.

You will hear from a variety of presenters throughout the course of these three days, including renowned researchers, clinicians, and healthcare experts. The program will feature keynote addresses, symposia, workshops, and poster presentations covering the latest recent developments in stroke and neurological

We anticipate that everyone will enjoy themselves, and this occasion will further our efforts to specifically enhance the lives of those affected by stroke and neurological illnesses.

Once more, it is with great pleasure that we greet all of you who will be at the Stroke Conference in 2023.

Regards

Organizing Committee | Stroke Congress 2023

ABOUT VENUE

The Netherlands is a country located in northwestern Europe. It is known for its picturesque canals, windmills, and tulip fields. The capital city is Amsterdam, but the seat of government is in The Hague. The official language is Dutch, and the currency is the Euro. The Netherlands has a population of approximately 17 million people and covers an area of about 41,500 square kilometers. It is a constitutional monarchy, with King Willem-Alexander serving as the current monarch. The Netherlands is also home to many notable companies, including Royal Dutch Shell, Philips, and Unilever. Its economy is highly developed and is known for its strong focus on international trade.

Cultural Diversity: The Netherlands is known for its cultural diversity, with a population of approximately 17 million people that includes many different ethnic and cultural groups. The country has a long history of immigration, with people from all over the world settling in the Netherlands for many different reasons.

Some of the largest ethnic groups in the Netherlands include Dutch, Indonesian, Turkish, Surinamese, Moroccan, and Antillean/Aruban. Additionally, there are many smaller ethnic communities from countries such as China, India, Pakistan, and Somalia.

Climate: The average temperature in the Netherlands ranges from about 2°C (36°F) in January to around 19°C (66°F) in July. However, temperatures can vary widely depending on the location and time of year, and can be affected by local factors such as wind direction, cloud cover, and proximity to water.

Currency & Transportation: The currency of the Netherlands is the Euro (€). It is divided into 100 cents and is used throughout the country. As for transportation, the Netherlands has an extensive public transportation system that includes trains, buses, trams, and metro lines. The national train company is called Nederlandse Spoorwegen (NS), and you can purchase tickets and check schedules on their website or at train stations. The OV-chipkaart is a rechargeable smart card that can be used on all forms of public transportation in the Netherlands. You can purchase and top-up OV-chipkaart at train stations, supermarkets, and other locations.

City of Attractions: Amsterdam: Known for its picturesque canals, world-class museums like the Rijksmuseum and Van Gogh Museum, and vibrant nightlife, Amsterdam is one of the most popular tourist destinations in Europe.
