RESUME FOR JOHN J. MCCLANAHAN, PhD., CCDC, LCADC—UPDATED 2017

1) Director—Alcoholism Outpatient Program—Washington Adventist Hospital—7 years—1985 to 1992. Duties included: responsible for all screening of prospective patients, intake of these patients into the program, assessment of patient needs, treatment planning for all patients, conducting all counseling sessions ( i.e. group, family and individual), case management for each patient, this included the responsibility for all patient education, keeping of all patient progress charts and records, discharge planning and referral for further treatment. Administrative duties included, but were not limited to, program budgeting, facility planning, problem solving, program development, community outreach, crisis intervention, quality assurance and utilization review ( copy of brochure is available upon request).

2) Coordinator--- Alcoholism After-Care Program--- Washington Adventist Hospital—9 years—1983 to 1992. Duties included: conducting all group sessions, conducting all family sessions, as necessary, teaching the necessary coping skill to help patients learn to deal with issues that are common in recovery, as well as other duties that are listed above in the "Director" section. Copies of this program are also available upon request.

3) Designed teen program for the City of Hyattsville, Maryland—"drop-in" center—1974. This project was concerned with providing teens with a safe after school environment, Activities, counseling, and so on were provided. Many aspects of this program are still in use today.

4) Designed "drug awareness" program for parents and their children for the City of Hyattsville, Maryland--- 1975. This was an interactive program that helped families cope with and understand drug use and addiction.

5) Over thirty (30) years of experience as a speaker on alcoholism and other drug addiction for school groups and other civic groups, etc.

6) Guest on many radio talk shows dealing with alcoholism and other drug addiction—1983 to the present. A list of shows and topics are available upon request.

7) Served as an alcoholism advisor for "Straight Talk—The National Radio Show"—The Mutual Broadcasting Company—1985- Duties included: assisting in program format design, topics for discussion, served as "off-air" counselor for people who would call in with questions concerning addiction or looking for referral sources—Calls were taken from coast to coast, as well as Alaska and Hawaii

8) Wrote " Getting it Straight", a monthly question and answer column on alcohol and drug abuse for the City of Hyattsville, Maryland newspaper—1987 to 1991—topics included a five part series on "the do's and don'ts for the family, :where to get help", " signs and symptoms of addiction" , and many others. Copies are available upon request.

9) Member of the City of Hyattsville, Maryland—Parks and Recreation Council—1989 and 1990.

10) Member—Board of Advisors—Mental Health Curriculum—Montgomery College, Takoma Park, Maryland—1987 to 1992.

11) Member—Alcoholism Treatment Committee—Washington Adventist Hospital—1985 to 1992—This committee oversees the institution and application of all policies that effect the Addictions Treatment Unit of the hospital.

12) Named to the Department of Psychiatry Review Committee—Washington Adventist Hospital—1991 and 1992—one of the few non-physicians ever named to this group.

13) Named as the "alcoholism and substance abuse advisor" for project at the National Museum of Health and Medicine—Walter Reed Army Hospital Center, Washington, D.C.—1989 to the present. This included the initial consultation for exhibit design and contents of the exhibit. This exhibit is an interactive, user friendly, teaching tool in the form of a theater. It is extensive in it's reach and scope. It is utilized by all of the area school systems and has become a popular tool with the community at large. A copy of an article written about the project, as well as my personal participation is available upon request.

14) Served as "principal lecturer" in substance abuse for museum from 1989 to 1993.

15) Appointed to the Prince George's County, Maryland, Substance Abuse Advisory Council—1989 to 1991—served as medical treatment facility representative—Duties included the setting up and implementation of county-wide policies for treatment facilities, etc..

16) Member of the National Association of Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Counselors (NAADAC) 1990 to the present.

17) Member of Certified Addictions Counselors of Maryland (CACOM) 1990 to the present.

18) Elected to the Board of Governors—Prince Georges County—University of Maryland Alumni Association—1989 to 1993.

19) Member of Montgomery County Maryland Speakers Bureau—1989 to 1993.

20) Member of the "Reaching Out Coalition" of the Washington Psychiatric Association—1989 to 1993.

21) Named to the "Menninger Foundation" – 1991 thru 1998.

22) Designed and implemented the current "After-Care" program that is still in use at Washington Adventist Hospital—1986—also wrote the textbook/ workbook that is used for the After-Care Program--- 1988--- copy is available upon request.

23) Member of the Maryland Addictions Counselor Certification Board—1992 to the present--- certification of CCDC awarded at that time.

24) Designed and conducted the student intern program for the Alcoholism Outpatient Program at Washington Adventist Hospital—1987 to 1992—This program included a good working knowledge of alcoholism and other addictions, as well as a firm grounding in the principles of group dynamics and individual and family counseling. Students worked with the program for an entire semester as a field placement study. This program started out as a collaborative effort between myself and the Mental Health Program at Montgomery College in 1987. It has since branched out to include students from the University of Maryland, Columbia Union College, Prince George's College, The Catholic University of America, The American University, Howard University, Anne Arundel College, Hood College and Wilson College ( PA).

25) Guest lecturer for "Project GAMMA--- University of Maryland—1991 to 1993. Project GAMMA is the "Greeks Advocating the Mature Management of Alcohol". It is a group of fraternities and sororities on campus, which thru the use of special events and lectures, educate the university population on topics such as, alcohol abuse and addiction.

26) Guest lecturer on substance abuse for the National Museum of Health and Medicine—Current projects include a repeat of a four part lecture series that was delivered in 1998. These lectures were video taped and distributed to the area school systems.

27) Designed the Alcoholism Outpatient Detoxification Program for Washington Adventist Hospital – copy available upon request.

28) Designed the Intensive Outpatient Program for Leland Memorial Hospital—Riverdale, Maryland—1991—copy available upon request.

29) Designed and implemented the drug addiction component for the Dual Diagnosis Program—Washington Adventist Hospital—Day Psychiatric Program—1990.

30) Re-appointed to the Prince George's County Substance Abuse Advisory Council--- 1991 to 1993.

31) Named as an advisor for the "self-help" clearinghouse at the National Museum of Health and Medicine--- 1991 to 1995.

32) Named "Clinical Director" of the Renewal and Recovery Center of Annapolis—Annapolis, Maryland—1992 to 1996.

33) Designed and implemented the Intensive Outpatient Program for Renewal and Recovery Center of Annapolis—October 1992.

34) Designed and implemented new counseling program for the outpatient detoxification program at the Renewal and Recovery Center of Annapolis--- 1992.

35) Designed and implemented the "DWI" program for Renewal and Recovery Center of Annapolis--- 1993.

36) Named to the Governor's Drug and Alcohol Abuse Commission—State of Maryland—July 1993.

37) Member of the Association for Medical Education and Research in Substance Abuse (AMERSA)—1994 to the present.

38) Named as staff presenter for Applecore Management Inc., -- This is a private group providing both the public and private sectors with workshops and seminars dealing with substance abuse issues—1994 to 1996.

39) Member of the Employees Assistance Professionals Association--- (EAPA)—1995 to 1998.

40) Member—Division 50—Addictive Behaviors—American Psychological Association—January 1996 to the present.

41) Presenter and trainer for Capital MRO—Annapolis, Maryland—1996—1998.

42) Presenter at the AMERSA National Conference—November 1996—copy of program available upon request.

43) Named "Director of Substance Abuse Treatment Programs", Cornerstone Healthcare Systems—7 site locations—1997.

44) Named to the Maryland State Addictions Counselors Certification Board (MACCB)—August 1997 to 1999. ( 2 year term).. This body was responsible at the time for setting the standards for certification and training of counselors coming into the field in the State of Maryland.

45) Began " McClanahan and Associates"—private practice and training workshops--- October 1998.

46) Presenter at the AMERSA National Conference—November 1998--- Program available upon request.

47) Presenter and sponsor at the First Annual Ashley/ McClanahan workshop for Relapse Prevention--- November 1998- copy of program available upon request.

48) Named visiting guest lecturer at Father Martin's Ashley – January 1999--- one time per month—three hours each presentation—until 2005.

49) Presenter at the " 24 Hours with the Experts" workshop for The Lawyers Assistance Program of the Maryland State Bar Association--- March 2005.

50) Presenter at the "Tuerk Conference"—April 2005.

51) Named a presenter for the Sobriety Enrichment Treatment Program (SETP) at Father Martin's Ashley--- June 2005 to the present.

52) Presented with designation of " Licensed Clinical Alcohol and Drug Counselor"—State of Maryland Board of Professional Counselors and Therapists" (LCADC)) Lic. # LCA040. -- 2002.

53) Presenter for Maryland Addictions Professional Certification Board (MACPB)—2004 to the present.

54) Presenter for Anne Arundel College Annual Mental Health Workshop—"Ethics in Private Practice—November 2005.

55) Designed and implemented "online" course version of "Relapse- The Seven Letter Dirty Word"-- for webcourses.com.--- 1999.
56) Filmed " Relapse --- The Seven Letter Dirty Word" ---- The Video-- 2007
57) Presenter at the Father Martin's Ashley National Conference on Addiction—November 2006.
58) Completed design for new inpatient facility in Costa Rica--- 2007
59) Helped with clinical design and opening of Serenity Acres Treatment Facility—2012.
60) Filmed all fifteen (15) education videos for KeepSober.org-- 2013

EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE

Associate in Arts Degree—General Education—Prince George's College—1972

Bachelor of Arts Degree—Psychology—University of Maryland—1974

Master of Arts Degree—Psychology—The Experimental College of the Institute for Behavioral Research—1981.

Master of Science Degree—Addictions Counseling—Columbia Pacific University—1989.

Doctor of Philosophy—Addictions Counseling—Columbia Pacific University—1991.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS

Office—410-626-7550
Fax—443-714-8805
Home—410-867-0507
Email—doctorjohn52@hotmail.com
Cell—410-279-8341

REFERENCES FOR JOHN J MCCLANAHAN, PHD, CCDC, LCADC

1) Tim Dunnigan LCSW-C, CIP
   443-834-8659
   Sr. Clinical Outreach Representative
   Father Martin's Ashley Treatment Center
   800 Tydings Lane
   Havre de Grace, Maryland, 21078

2) Alex Denstman
   410-273-2248
   Director of Clinical Outreach
   Father Martin's Ashley Treatment Center
   800 Tydings Lane
   Havre de Grace, Maryland, 21078

3) Robert White, MA, LCPC
   410-328-8549
   University of Maryland School of Medicine
   University of Maryland Medical System
   Employee Assistance Program
   110 S. Paca Street
   Baltimore, Maryland

4) Jim Quinn, MS, CCDC, NCGC
   443-703-3041
   Director
   Lawyer Assistance Program
   Maryland Bar Association
   520 West Fayette Street,
   Baltimore, Maryland, 21201