About Richmond

Richmond city, capital of Virginia, U.S., seat of Henrico County, situated in the east-central part of the state at the head of navigation of the James River. Politically independent of the county, it is the centre of a metropolitan area including the rest of Henrico county and Chesterfield and Hanover counties. The English first explored the site in 1607, when a party led by Christopher Newport and John Smith sailed upriver shortly after the founding of James town. There is no particular time to visit Richmond as it boasts warm summers, pleasant springs, red and gold autumns though the winters are pretty chilly. May to October is the high season when it comes to visitors flocking to the banks of the James. Autumn is a particularly beautiful time to visit, when the leaves turn russet and gold and reflect in the gentle waters of the river. It has unique shopping destinations like Need Supply, Ledbury and Shockoe Atelier for fashionistas and world-class museums like the VMFA, The Valentine and the VCU Institute for Contemporary Art. From thrift and vintage shops to farmers markets, Segway Tours, bike rentals and Virginia Green certified hotels, restaurants, venues and attractions, it's all
