About the conference

The 20th International Conference on Frontiers in Alternative & Traditional Medicine is a global platform that brings together researchers, healthcare professionals, practitioners, and scholars to explore the evolving landscape of natural and holistic healing systems. This prestigious event focuses on integrating ancient medical traditions with modern scientific approaches, aiming to promote sustainable, patient-centered healthcare solutions. Conferences in this field typically include keynote sessions, workshops, and collaborative discussions to advance knowledge and innovation in alternative medicine.

Theme: "Ethics, Regulation, and Globalization of Traditional Medicine".

Why to attend the conference

Attending the 20th International Conference on Frontiers in Alternative & Traditional Medicine offers a unique opportunity to explore the future of natural and holistic healthcare. With its theme "Healing Naturally: Rediscovering Ancient Therapies for Modern Life," the conference brings together global expertise and traditional knowledge in one place.

One of the main reasons to attend is the chance to gain global exposure. Participants can interact with researchers, healthcare professionals, and practitioners from different parts of the world, allowing them to understand diverse perspectives on alternative medicine. The conference also provides access to latest research and innovations in natural healing. Attendees can learn how ancient practices are being scientifically validated and adapted for modern healthcare systems.

Another important benefit is the opportunity to rediscover traditional healing systems such as Ayurveda, Traditional Chinese Medicine, and Naturopathy. These approaches focus on prevention, balance, and overall well-being, making them highly relevant today.
