Dear Colleagues!!

On behalf of Conference Series LLC Ltd, We would like to take an immense pleasure and honor to welcome you towards upcoming 7th American Forensic Research Conference during Oct 31- Nov 01, 2018, San Francisco, USA. The purpose of this 2 day conference is to bring together high profiled researchers, doctors scholars, eminent personalities, Pathologists, therapists, delegates and students from both academic and industrial fields throughout the world under single roof.

Theme: Emerging research in forensic chemistry and science

As we know, in this present world day to day latest innovations and discoveries are going on. Based on such issues we came forward to correlate our conference subject with reference to forensic science, research and forensic technology. Members from forensic science, chemistry, biochemistry, molecular biology, recombinant DNA technology, Pharmacology and pathology departments will grab a best opportunity to reach the largest assemblage of eminent scholars and expert scientists.

Accordingly, we would be delighted if you would share with us your views on new innovations in research and development and science education issues. You are happy to participate in Keynote Sessions, Workshops & Symposiums, Oral talks and Poster presentations. American Forensic 2018 international conferenceconference also holds several types of sponsorships in proving greater benefits to the members participating from pharmaceutical sectors, lab centers and other market dealers. Our international conference also provides a great support to the business entrepreneurs to promote their products or organization promotion in our conference hall San Francisco by exhibiting booths.

Finally, we will be highly obliged to see you in San Francisco, American Forensic 2018. Thank You!!

TOURISTS ATTRACTIONS IN SAN FRANCISCO

PIER 39

PIER 39—the most visited tourist place in San Francisco—offers two levels of eating, amusement, shopping and attractions, all encompassed by phenomenal perspectives of the city and the sound. Situated along the memorable San Francisco waterfront, PIER 39's area gives the photo idealize scenery to postcard perspectives of the Golden Gate and Bay Bridges, Alcatraz, Angel Island and the well known city horizon.

Golden Gate Bridge

Once called "the bridge that couldn't be built" today it is one the seven miracles of the cutting edge world. This majestic bridge, maybe San Francisco's most famed landmark, opened in 1937 following a four-year battle against determined breezes, mist, rocks and deceptive tides.

Golden Gate Park

One of the biggest urban parks on the planet, Golden Gate Park extends for three miles on the western edge of San Francisco. There's not a solitary "Keep Off the Grass" sign and its 1,017 sections of land are a tonic for psyche and body. Two noteworthy exhibition halls, impressive greenhouses and offices for in excess of 20 sports affirm this is a play area in each feeling of the word.

Lombard Street

Regularly called the “crookedest” road on the planet, this picturesque street on Russian Hill includes tight turns, fragrant greenery enclosures and lovely perspectives of the inlet, Alcatraz, and Coit Tower.

Alcatraz Island

Alcatraz was the site of the principal beacon in the Western United States yet turned into a government prison from 1934-1963, lodging popular convicts, for example, Al Capone and George “Assault rifle” Kelly. Presently, this once notorious jail island is a piece of the Bay Area’s 80,000-section of land Golden Gate National Recreation Area. Found one-and-a-half miles from Fisherman’s Wharf, Alcatraz is one of the city’s most prominent attractions. A visit to the island incorporates a voyage through the cell house where guests can see where the detainees lived.

California Academy of Sciences

Home to an aquarium, planetarium, normal history exhibition hall, and world-class research and training programs, the California Academy of Sciences is one of San Francisco’s must-see goals. From the sprinkling penguins in African Hall to the wildflowers on the rooftop, the building is overflowing with life. A four-story living rainforest and stunning coral reef biological system will amuse guests of any age, while immersive planetarium shows will transport groups of onlookers through space and time for another viewpoint on our planet.
