SEPTEMBER
24-25, 2018

Chicago, the seat of Cook County, is located in north-eastern Illinois, on the south-eastern shore of Lake Michigan and at the junction of the lake and the Chicago River. Long the United States' second-largest city (now it's third-largest), Chicago is the only Midwestern metropolis to rank with the great cities of the nation's east and west coasts. Its nickname, "the Windy City," though thought by many to refer to a climate influenced by the city's location on the southwest shore of Lake Michigan, actually has its origin in the civic pride that has inspired its citizens to boastfulness for generations. The "City of Big Shoulders" .
